Good Afternoon Paul and Michael -

Attached is the draft media release that the City intends to send out sometime tomorrow (Thursday, December 18, 2014) morning. There may be some modifications after this afternoon's stakeholder meeting but I doubt it will be anything significant, if at all. The attached photo is from the City's contract for the most recent flyover for mapping purposes.

I will update you both via email about how the stakeholder meeting goes this afternoon. I'm very optimistic that all the hard work will be well received.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Bruce
